"I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die;" John 11:25

Dear Hope School family,

Our Lord has written the promise of the resurrection not in books alone, but in the lives of young & marginalized children. Despite all of the personal misfortunes, sufferings and daily difficulties, the measureless source of our joy is revealed in the fount of eternal hope! Yes indeed; Hope is given to those young children in our care.

This Easter represents a turning point in Hope School career. It's time to reveal our progress, to look more at what's coming ahead:

1- The School: the Academic and educational process has improved remarkably; teachers now have job security, which was missing in the past, they get their salaries on time and even before the end of the month. Students have more discipline, more open to others comply with rules and instructions, but most of all the academic results are improving.

2- Chicken farm: The Board managed to restart the chicken farms. Last October we started with 2100 laying hens and in March 2015 we have increased the number to 4000. The facts that will double the production to an average of 3600 egg a day.

3- Laundry Section: The newly constructed Laundry section has been completed. Work started in June 2014 by the Teen Missions International, however, due to the regional unrest during that time work was stopped. Funded by Embrace the Middle East, Hope school was able to continue the project and complete the entire work. Our sincere thanks go to Teen Missions-USA and Embrace the Middle East - UK. The inauguration ceremony is expected to be in April 25th.

4- Kindergarten: Work on the Kindergarten area started in March, 2015. The work is expected to finalize by the end of April. We need to prepare it for the new school year in September 2015.

5- Visitors: Many friends from Europe and USA visited the school during the past two years; we were delighted to welcome Open Doors, Educational Opportunities (EO) and PCDC group who visit the school biannually, this term we had 3 PCDC members staying with us for 18 days they supported the boarders so that they could go on a school trip. We also had two volunteers from the United Methodist Church, who were of great help to the school.

6- Extra Curricular activities: the program was full of activities that engaged many of the school students: an Italian concert played a special show (Jazz Music) for the school students, “Young life” group used to come to the school on regular basis for entertaining events and finally the school organized a soccer competition engaging the boarders and the day-school students.
